The Fair Trade shop

“Good Taste” provides our coffee on a Sunday after the service.

There is a study course to accompany the book which has been produced in association with the Christian ecology movement A Rocha. We hope the course will help us understand more about climate change and how to respond to its challenge in our lives and faith. Although this is primarily for 4-6 years old, parents and younger/older siblings are welcome too! For more information or to register contact the Director of Music.
