The ride will end during Christian Aid week. I'm grateful to the wonderful supporters who are sponsoring me in aid of Christian Aid and Alzheimers Research. PARISH BOUNDARY WALK 2023 SUMMARY -

We are planning a walk around the Ranmoor Parish boundary following the APCM on May 14th (Rogation Sunday). This is also the start of Christian Aid Week, so we will be asking for participants to raise some sponsorship for the event. The complete route is approximately 6 miles (9.5km) and includes a tricky climb, but we will be offering other options including one of about 5.5 miles (9km) which avoids any rough paths. The walk will start at 1:30 after allowing time for a picnic following the meeting and will be led by Pauline and Alan Heath. Maps will also be available for anyone not able to join us at that time.

GROW SOME PEAS FOR CHRISTIAN AID -

Christian Aid this year are having a Pea Challenge. In Malawi they try to grow pigeon peas which they make into flour, as these are drought and flood resistant, which is one of their staple foods. We are going to ask you to grow your own peas. You will be provided with 2 peas, a pot, a stick (to mark your name on and what you are growing) and these will be available at messy church on the 8th April and at the Easter Sunday service at 10.30am, for 50p per pot.

CHRISTIAN AID BOOK STALL MAY 20TH MORNING-

Mary Grover will be holding a book stall on the morning of the Christian Aid brunch on Saturday 20th May. Please could you bring any donations to church on a Sunday and put them in the designated pew on the right of the Church in front of the children's area (After Easter please) or, bring them down to 8 Oakbrook Rd. If you ring beforehand [263 0691] Mary could put them straight in the car. Many thanks Mary
