IF YOU ARE ABLE TO HELP ARCHER PROJECT SLEEP OUT – BOOK LAUNCH - This time last year Tim slept in the church yard and we fed him as he slept rough for fourteen nights to raise awareness of homelessness. The daily blogs he wrote were popular and he was asked to turn them into a book. The Archer Project are holding a book launch as part of Sheffield’s book festival “Off the Shelf”. We’d like to give complimentary tickets to any in your congregation who want to come. The advertised entry is £5 but ignore that, it is free to any from our church. All you need to do is tell them which church you are from when you arrive. Or you can reserve a place by emailing lucy.wilks@archerproject.org.uk The book launch is on 16th October at 7pm at Sheffield Cathedral and will involve interviews with people who have contributed to the book. Readings from the book and a question and answer session.

THE 14TH ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE SATURDAY 21 OCTOBER 2023 Starting at 9:30 am 9:00am, St James’ Church, Norton for a 9:30am start.
