

St John's Ranmoor, Sheffield

is pleased to offer an Organ Scholarship for the academic year 2024-25

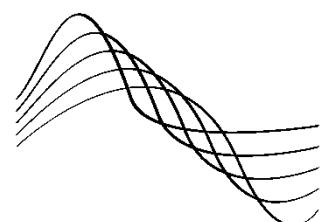

St John's runs a very active music programme with two choral services every Sunday and Choral Evensong every other Wednesday sung by various combinations of our Junior Choir, Choristers, Choral Scholars and Adult Choir. The choir sings a varied and ambitious programme of music to a very high standard – see <https://www.stjohnsranmoor.org.uk/> for some past and present music lists and further information about the choir.

The Organ Scholar will support the music department by playing for services, accompanying and occasionally conducting the choir and assisting with the training of the Choristers and Juniors under the direction of the Director of Music. The exact role will be tailored to the strengths, experience and ambitions of the candidate.

This scholarship might suit a sixth-former preparing for University Organ Scholarships or a University student who wishes to develop further their skills as a church musician. The Organ Scholar would have extensive use of the organ at St John's, which is one of the finest in the region.

There is an honorarium of up to £1200 per year and there is also the possibility of organ lessons or other tuition where appropriate.

If you would like to know more or would like to apply, please contact the Director of Music, Philip Collin, by emailing music@stjohnsranmoor.org.uk . Application is by CV and a covering letter outlining your relevant experience and how being Organ Scholar at St John's would help you develop as a church musician.
