Scissor Makers, Bookmakers and Home-makers: Networking in a Victorian and Edwardian suburb 1880-1919

Saturday 22nd March

Church open from 2pm, talk at 5.30pm

Late Victorian Ranmoor was home to an extraordinarily diverse group of people. Using the 1891 pew rental map of St John's, census returns for that year and newspaper reports, our research team is exploring who these individuals were and how they were connected to one another.

Sue Roe and Mary Grover from the Scissors Paper Stone project will share something of what they, Val Hewson and Jenny Stephenson have learned so far.

The church will be open in the afternoon from 2pm. Guided tours and refreshments will be available throughout the afternoon. The talk will begin at 5.30.

Talk tickets £5, available from TicketSource or the Parish Office. Free for children and students.

INSPIRE PROJECT APPEAL – Please put 1st March 6.30-8pm in your diaries. We will be launching our Inspire Project appeal to restore the spire and provide new toilets and a refreshment area.
